

THE NEED OF A WATER LAW.

Owing to the opposition displayed by many of the farmers and ditch owners of the State, engendered mainly, we think, by suspicion and a failure to understand the measure, and fostered by a few parties who may be aptly termed "water hogs," and who fear that they will be cut down to what they are justly entitled, our lawmakers seem to be hesitating as to what disposition to make of the irrigation bill introduced by Senator LeGrave. We believe that nearly all of the members of the Legislature are convinced that this is a good bill, and are also convinced that the reasons above suggested are the real reasons why so much opposition has arisen to it.

The people of the State have at present no water law at all; that there is absolutely no provision of law whereby a party can acquire a right to the water of any of our streams. The "Osborn Law" recently repealed, prescribed what proceedings were necessary to acquire rights to water, and repealed the law which was previously in force. Now we have nothing. What the result will be to the State if this Legislature adjourns without enacting a comprehensive water law, we leave our Senators and Assemblymen to figure out.

A Bad Example.

The APPEAL has on its table a printed copy of the proposals sent out by the State Board of Examiners for office stationery for the use of the State.

In this proposal the significant line occurs.

"Bids to state prices in San Francisco, the State to pay freight."

Of course no Nevada stationer could afford to pay any attention to such a bid.

For over twenty years the paper ring of San Francisco has controlled the stationery business of Nevada and the stationers of Nevada, who pay taxes to support the State Government are debarred from bidding.

This is the way the State of Nevada sets the example of home industry. The Silver Legislature can remedy this evil if it so desires.

Sound on Silver.

Bartine's last speech on silver was a sound one and also a good one on the right side of silver.

While the APPEAL feels it is but just to compliment him on his talk, it wishes it could say that he thought more of silver than of party alliance and that he had the backbone last fall to get in line with the State and fight for the white metal outside the lines of a party supporting a gold-bug nominee for President.

Townsend on Ingersoll.

Eastern sentimentalists, including Bob Ingersoll, have presented a petition to Congress protesting against exclusion and asking for the repeal of the Geary bill. Bob is bright in some things but unspeakably mushy on others. He does not believe in God, but has faith in Chinamen. We want to bet that he'll squawk when the devil taps him on the back and says "come on, Bob, I'll melt some of that skepticism out of you pretty soon."

The Lander-Humboldt Boundary.

A bill has been introduced in the legislature fixing the boundary line between Humboldt and Lander counties. It establishes the line according to the Van Lennep survey of 1871 and requires the commissioners of the two counties to mark the line near the Central Pacific railroad.

Chance For Silver.

The President has decided to sell bonds and Secretary Foster says that they can be bought with silver coin. Looks as if things were coming the Nevada way.

The Chronicle points out the fact that the act creating a State Printing office provides that nothing but State printing shall be done there. There is no danger of anything else being done there. The Australian ballot law however should be amended so that the printing of tickets shall be done in the counties where they are used and not allow clerks to make junketing trips to the Bay under cover of the plea that Nevada printing offices cannot print their ballots.

A Mighty Fire.

No one should miss the Revival Meetings held in the Methodist Church each night this week. A great work of grace is in progress.

Leave orders at this office or the Brigg's Hotel, if you want your house shingled. We are ready to do anything in the repair line, and will guarantee good work. Give us a trial. We will also lay carpets or take them up.
